

Beyond boundaries: reaching out to the world in times of change

How international engagement can support your ability to rise and respond to contemporary HE challenges

Kirsty Wadsley

Head of widening participation | London School of Economics & Political Science
k.wadsley@lse.ac.uk | @kirstywadsley

John Burgess

Resources Administrator | Anglia Ruskin University
john.burgess@anglia.ac.uk

- What country/city did your colleague last visit that was outside of the UK? – Red
- What country/city was the person in that your colleague last communicated with someone based overseas? – Green
- Which country/city outside the UK does your colleague know someone who lives &/or works internationally? – Yellow

Today's Session

- Think about what challenges you are facing
- How could you use international engagement to benefit?
- Hear what experiences others have had of international engagement in HE

Summary of Task

With reference to the challenge/change you've identified . . .

- What issues are likely to be experienced in HE globally?
- Identify an area of work that you've not been involved with before or want to find out more about
- How could you grow and exploit an international network?

Welcome
future
Sun
Devils®

What did we do?

- Applying / securing opportunities
- Advance planning
- Pre-conference networking
- Preparing to present
- At the conference itself

What did we gain?

- Informed future work
- Increased knowledge
- Created opportunities
- Chance to create opportunities

What next? (5 mins)

- Complete the second page
- We're going to collect template forms
- We'll e-mail them back to you in two weeks
- Connect with us in the meantime – details on first page

AUA member opportunities

- TEMC - Australia (September)
(Apply Jul)
- SEM – USA in Autumn (Oct/Nov)
(Apply Aug/Sept)
- Annual study tours
- Partners e.g. AACRAO, ATEM, CUABO
- International members – just get in contact

Questions and feedback